

Adviser resources - websites

Useful adviser websites to help you support your students in thinking about Higher education

There are so many useful websites available sometimes it's hard to know where to start. Here we have provided you with a few key adviser websites designed specifically for advisers to help support your work with learners who are thinking about progression to HE. Please note this is not an exhaustive list but should act as a good starting point.

✓ UCAS Adviser Site

UCAS have a specific adviser site designed to support you in every stage of the application process.

✓ Gov.uk

Detailed adviser information on Higher Education including material on different higher level qualifications, mature learners, and applying to full and part time courses.

✓ Student Finance England Practitioner Support

This site, designed specifically for practitioners, provides guidance on the financial support available for students entering HE.

✓ Apprenticeship resources for teachers and advisers

Resources to help teachers and careers advisers offer information, advice and guidance to young people, about apprenticeships.

✓ TheUniGuide

Designed for students and adviser to help provide up to date information about what course and where to study higher education.

✓ Target courses – Resource Zone

Here you will find career guides focusing on professional careers, developing employability and next step options for those wanting to progress to HE. These guides are suitable for advisers, students and parents/careers.

✓ Office for Student (OfS)

The OfS have a 'student information and data' section within their 'advice and guidance' pages which you may find of particular interest.

Learner – websites

As with adviser website there are so many useful learner websites available to show your learners. Here are just a few to get you started.

✓ All about Careers.com

You will find information about career paths and learners will be able to take a career quiz. The website also has information on applying for jobs and gaining work experience as well as information around applying to study at HE.

✓ Prospects

This website is very helpful for learners to see what their graduate prospects could be like by looking at all the facts and figures related to graduate careers.

✓ Discover Uni

Learners are able to search for and compare information and data for UG courses across the UK.

✓ Gov.UK – Student Finance

A set by step guide for everything about student finance, from eligibility and applying to repayments

✓ The Scholarship Hub

This website is useful if you have learners who are looking for extra finances (outside of a student loan) to fund their higher education.

✓ University Compare

Here you will find advice for learners thinking about applying to HE, course searches, information about Open Days, university ranking data and much more.

✓ The Student Room

The Student Room (TSR) is an on-line community providing advice from current students, who have been there and done that, to potential students around all matters relating to HE.