

WHERE COULD PUBLIC SERVICES TAKE YOU?

Wondering what to do after your Level 3 course?

You could study...

(A few) higher education options:

- Criminology/Sociology/ Psychology
- Public Services/Policing
- Social and Public Policy
- Politics/International Relations
- Law
- Health and Social Care/ Social Work/Nursing

Use the UCAS course search tool to find different courses:
digital.ucas.com/search skills you already have teamwork communication critical thinking analytical skills organisation problem solving

There are lots of different subjects you could study after your Level 3 Public Services course and we recommend trying different search terms and keywords in the UCAS course search tool to get an idea of what's on offer. Make sure to check the entry requirements to see if your qualification is accepted.

growing occupations

care workers paramedics care home managers youth and community workers primary and secondary teachers

You could be a...

Requiring a Level 3 qualification*

Senior Officer in fire, ambulance, or prison services

Average wage: £12-£20 per hour

Government Administrator, Police Community Support Officer, Protective Service Professional

Requiring a higher education qualification

Nurse, Local/National Government Officer, Social Worker

Average wage: £15-£27 per hour

Teacher, Youth/Community Worker, Business Projects Officer *may require further training

Apprenticeships

Data Analyst Level 4 (Higher National Certificate)

£10k-£20k per annum

Associate Project Manager Level 4 (Higher National Certificate)

£8k-£19k per annum

Chartered Surveyor Level 6 (Degree with honours)

£15k-£19k per annum

Digital and Technology Solutions Professional Level 6 (Degree with honours)

£16k per annum

www.findapprenticeship.service.gov.uk www.notgoingtouni.co.uk www.ratemyapprenticeship.co.uk

 LINKING LONDON

 OFS Uni Connect Programme

London
NCOP